

Brotherhood Call-Out

By: Kevin Murphy

Allowat Sakima: Here today there are Brothers among us who have sought to seal their membership in the Order of the Arrow.

Meteu: For the past ten months these arrowmen have set the example, given service and leadership to their unit, chapter, and lodge.

Allowat Sakima: Candidates, when your name is called please step forward.

Meteu: My Brothers once again in token of your commitment to the Order we ask you to continue your work in quiet reflection so you may look back on the last ten months in the Order of the Arrow. And look toward how you shall commit yourself in the future.

Allowat Sakima: My Brothers come with me, and find yourselves once again on the search to find the Arrow.
